

FROM PEGGY TO POLLY.

Thursday, June 3.

Dearest Polly: This week has not been as full as have the four which have just passed, but I guess people are about exhausted. Four weeks of steady going is about all one can stand in such a lazy happy-go-lucky climate as we have in Honolulu. The Cubist, Futurist and Post Impressionist party was really the only big thing of the week, with the exception of the joint tea at the Country Club, at which Mrs. William Davis and Mrs. L. J. Owen were hostesses. Mrs. Bruce Cartwright was tremendously original and brave to plan and give such an entertainment. I say brave because it was fully three months' steady work and took a year's planning. She is really a Futurist and Cubist, and some of her work, artistically speaking and from the standpoint of the Cubist, is really very good. I have heard that through painting a Cubist picture for the affair, Howard Hitchcock has been converted. It really is something which "grows on you." That is the first party of the sort ever heard of in the world and the first Cubist dances were danced there. The arrangements were carried out to the remotest detail, even to the cigarettes and candy, which were made to order.

Baseball is making quite a hit now that the Stanford nine is here. The boys are a splendid looking lot and they, or some of the members of the team, are learning something about Hawaii which Alexander's history forgot to mention. That is, that the girls here are not cannibals. Having read a few books on good manners and good form, they have been known to accept introductions and occasionally to perform one.

I must tell you a good joke on one of the most popular girls here. A very important dance was being given and the fair one had no escort. She thought and thought and finally found one man for whom she might secure an invitation. By handing the missive to him, her partner, of course, would be insured. But—when she said "Here is an invitation to So-and-So's dance, I thought you might like to go," he replied with a most gracious bow, "Why, thank you, I hope I shall see you there." The girl said that she could not wait to get into the house to give way to mirth. It was absolutely too good a joke.

There are a number of prominent fraternities with representatives on the baseball team. Russel O'Neill, Tom Workman and Ray Dent are from the Beta Theta Pi house. Zeta Psi is represented by Mr. Hayes, the pitcher, and Walter Stafford. I guess you remember Barrett Small, who beat Duke in the 50-yard swim. Well, he was a Zeta Psi from U. C. Gus Hoover represents the Theta Delta Chi. Mr. Maple comes from the Sigma Kappa house. Probably there will be a pan-Hellenic dinner given. I have heard such suggestions made.

Two interesting weddings come along this month of June. The first will be that of "Midge" Gilman and Percy Nottage and the second that of Helen Spalding and Ensign Howard Douglass Bode of the navy. Midge and Percy have been engaged for about two years and are about two of the best-looking people I know of in the younger set. Their wedding will be a quiet one on June 18, for which Mrs. Gilman is arriving from California. Helen Spalding and the ensign will be married on the 29th at high noon. This will be quite an elaborate affair. She is the last single of the pretty Spalding girls, and is the only one marrying into the navy, the other three being matrons in army sets. The weddings of the three Spaldings have been recorded in the history of Honolulu society as notable affairs. Weddings are always things to look forward to, anyway, no matter whose they are, and when two society ones come at the same time, of course, it is more exciting still.

The Walter Macfarlanes are going to celebrate their tenth wedding anniversary this month. A tin wedding, and I believe, Ernest Parker has been planning something very unusual for the affair. He has some of the most unique and original ideas you ever heard of and as for decoration, well, he takes the frosting on the cake. He has studied.

The popular Josephine McCormack, niece of Capt. and Mrs. Edward Massee, has left, with strings to a number of hearts peacefully reposing in her alligator bag, says Dame Rumor. On the eve of her departure, Miss Sally Brown gave an elaborately appointed dinner for her, after which the guests participated in the hotel dance. Miss McCormack, during her visit here, learned everything worth learning—she could play an accompaniment on the ukulele as well as girls who have lived here for years. Everyone is hoping against hope that she will return soon.

The weather is beastly warm and the call of the surf is too great to remain indoors any longer.

Love,

PEGGY.

Mrs. I. M. Stainback, one of Honolulu's charming matrons, left for the mainland today to spend some time visiting friends and relatives.

SCHOFIELD SOCIETY

(Special Star-Bulletin Correspondence)

SCHOFIELD BARRACKS, June 4.—The 4th Cavalry Club gave their regular monthly hop on Thursday evening with quite a large number of guests present. Capt. and Mrs. John Fair entertained for about 40 friends on that evening, giving a most enjoyable hop supper. Small tables, at each of which were seated four guests, were prettily decorated with vases of yellow flowers, yellow crystal candlesticks and shades, and dainty place-cards, ornamented with yellow flowers. At the end of every course the two gentlemen at each table changed to the next one, thus bringing about a delightful mingling of the supper party. Present were Col. and Mrs. William Forsyth, Maj. William and Mrs. Cruikshank, Maj. and Mrs. John O'Shea, Miss Sue Holcomb, Capt. and Mrs. James Parker, Capt. and Mrs. Lucius Holbrook, Lieut. and Mrs. William Gardenhire, Lieut. and Mrs. Louis McKinlay, Mrs. Pelham Glassford, Lieut. and Mrs. Alexander Milton, Lieut. and Mrs. Roland Gaugler, Capt. and Mrs. Gordon Kimball, Capt. and Mrs. George Apple, Capt. and Mrs. Sherrard Coleman, Mr. McCaulay, Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Naylor, Lieut. and Mrs. Orville Tyler, Lieut. and Mrs. Seth Cook, Capt. and Mrs. Frank Burnett, Capt. and Mrs. Campbell King.

Col. and Mrs. W. P. Kendall were dinner hosts on Thursday, entertaining for 12. A dainty arrangement of pale pink carnations and cadena de amour filled a low bowl in the center of the table, whose pink note was reflected in the other appointments. Covers were placed for Gen. and Mrs. John P. Wisser, Maj. and Mrs. Gideon Van Poole, Col. S. D. Sturgis, Mrs. John Boniface, Dr. Leo Mudd, Madame Beauregard, Major Julius Penn, Capt. Harry Williams and Col. and Mrs. Kendall.

Mrs. William Gardenhire gave a two table bridge luncheon on Thursday. After a delicious luncheon the pivoting game was in order, and a pleasant afternoon enjoyed. The holders of the high scores at the several tables were Mrs. Pillow and Mrs. Willard, with Mrs. McCaskey and Mrs. Fechet with lowest scores. Attractive sewing baskets were awarded to the first two ladies and the consolations were sets of Japanese dollies. The ladies present were Mesdames Douglas McCaskey, James Fechet, Harold Naylor, Jerome Pillow, William Cruikshank, Frank Burnett and Charles Willard. The luncheon table was daintily decorated with bowls of red and white phlox.

Mrs. Edmund Butts was also a bridge hostess on Thursday entertaining in honor of Mrs. William Borland and Mrs. Kate Fullerton, house-guests of Mrs. Clyde Crusan, and Miss Cora Lipton, guest of Mrs. Donald Hay. Two tables were placed for the always delightful games, the prizes pivoting after each round. Mrs. Crusan and Mrs. Mitchell won the prizes for highest scores which were sets of dainty Japanese figurines holding dinner-cards. The guests were Mesdames Borland, Fullerton, Miss Lipton, Mesdames Clyde Crusan, Donald Hay, Americus Mitchell, Robert Harbord and Stanley Sinclair.

Mrs. Donald Hay entertained on Tuesday in honor of Miss Cora Lipton by giving a three-table auction party. Those present were Mesdames L. W. V. Kennon, Earnest Gose, Edmund Butts, Madame McCaskey, Ed Ballinger, Richard Taylor, William Mapes, Charles Rich, Walter Frank, Smith and Miss Lipton. The prizes were Japanese umbrellas, which were won by Mrs. Gose and Miss Lipton.

Gen. and Mrs. Carter were overnight guests of Lieut. and Mrs. Pillow, motoring out from town in time for dinner and the hop in the Cavalry Club. Capt. and Mrs. C. R. Day and Capt. and Mrs. William Chitty were also dinner-guests of the Pillows on this occasion.

The moonlight hop given at the Haleiwa hotel on Saturday evening was a most enjoyable occasion, an unusually large number of service people motoring out from town and from Schofield. The long lanai was filled with tables for the dinner guests, who later enjoyed the dancing to the music of the Hawaiian orchestra, and still later many guests took advantage of the beautiful night and calm sea and brought the evening to a delightful close with a swim in the moon-lit cove. Capt. and Mrs. Jamerson of Fort Shafter were hosts of one large dinner party, which included among the guests Miss Katherine Judge, Maj. H. O. Williams, Maj. Delaney, Col. and Mrs. Reynolds, Miss Helen Alexander, Capt. and Mrs. Campbell King, Capt. Kittelle and Mr. Burrelle of the Maryland, Mr. and Mrs. Deering, Miss Whitmore, Col. Sturgis and Mr. and Mrs. Wilder.

Another party was composed of Schofield people, including the Misses Welcome and Constance Ayer, Miss Ruth Barklay, Lieut. and Mrs. George Harris, Lieut. Franklin Whitley, V. V. Enyart and Dr. Mudd.

Other diners at the hotel were Maj. and Mrs. Gideon Van Poole, Capt. and Mrs. William Chitty, Lieut. and Mrs. Robert Harbord, Capt. and Mrs. Pelham Glassford, Lieut. and Mrs. Orville Tyler, Lieut. and Mrs. Alexander Milton, Miss Anne Carpenter, Mr. McCaulay, Lieut. Chipman, Lieut. Freeman Bowley, Lieut. Bernard Peyton and Lieut. Wallace Phillon.

Friday, Capt. and Mrs. William Doane gave a hop supper for 26 guests—friends of the post—who all appeared at the hop in the 25th Club later. The guests were Gen. and Mrs. John Wisser, Maj. and Mrs. Ernest Gose, Maj. and Mrs. Edmund Butts, Capt. and Mrs. William Mapes, Capt. Marshall Childs, Capt. and Mrs. Brady Rutenecutter, Lieut. and Mrs. James Higgins, Capt. and Mrs. David Stone, Capt. and Mrs. Charles Willard, Capt. Rufus Longan, Lieut. Spatz, Milligan, Wheeler, Phillon and Baker. Two tables were attractively garnished with yellow coreopsis and maidenhair ferns and their delicate colors of green and yellow were carried out in the other appointments.

Last Friday an attractive dinner given by Maj. and Mrs. George Bailey took place before the formal hop of the 1st Infantry pavilion. Yellow coreopsis and ferns were chosen as the table's decoration and made a dainty effect as a centerpiece. Covers were placed for Col. and Mrs. Frank Cheatham, Capt. and Mrs. Campbell King, Capt. and Mrs. Edward Carey, Col. John McMahon, Miss Stella Mayer and Maj. and Mrs. Bailey.

Miss Welcome Ayer entertained with a hop supper on the same evening, given in honor of Miss Constance Ayer and Miss Ruth Barklay. The supper was served at small tables, the men progressing between tables after each course. Present were the Misses Constance Ayer, Ruth Barklay, Anne Carpenter, Dorothy Forsyth, Ruth Harrison, Lieut. and Mrs. George Harrison, Lieut. and Mrs. Franklin Rice, Capt. Gouverneur Packer, Mr. McCaulay and Lieut. W. Phillon, Eugene Pales, Haig Shekergian, William McCulloch, Otis Sadtler and Franklin Whitley.

Miss Constance Ayer and Miss Barklay were the guests of honor at the

MARRIED FIFTY YEARS AGO IN SCOTLAND

Mr. and Mrs. Archibald Sinclair.

"Married for half a century and it seems only like a few days."

Archibald Sinclair and Mrs. Sinclair of 774 Kinau street, celebrated their golden wedding last week, having been married in Scotland in 1865.

"Archie" Sinclair, as he was known in "the old days," came to Honolulu to build the palace for King Kalakaua in 1879. He laid the first stone and was foreman during the construction, expecting to return to San Francisco at the end of six months. Such an event however was not in store for the expert stone mason and builder, and he stayed in Hawaii building many of the structures to be seen in Honolulu today.

Sinclair built his way across the continent of America and then jumped to the islands of the Pacific. He took an active part in the building era of New York in the late 60's and also helped to rebuild Chicago after the great fire in 1871. San Francisco was next to claim him until 1879 when he accepted the position as foreman on King Kalakaua's palace.

Mr. Sinclair is hale and hearty yet and declares he could still build another palace if given a chance. Dr. A. N. Sinclair of the federal health service and territorial pathologist, is a son of the Sinclairs. Archibald Sinclair, Jr., a daughter's son, adopted under the grandfather's name, is now an expert electrical engineer at Niagara Falls, having commenced his career as an amateur wireless operator in Honolulu.

table decorations were in yellow, a round bowl holding orange tinted nasturtiums formed the centerpiece, while yellow tulle streamers led from this to each place and tied to the handle of a small basket holding nuts.

Lieut. and Mrs. Louis McKilay entertained very delightfully at dinner on Wednesday evening for twelve. White asters and sprays of ferns in a cluster arrangement set off with white unshaded candles in silver sticks formed an effective centerpiece. Covers were placed for Col. and Mrs. Charles Bromwell, Judge and Mrs. Ballou, Lieut. and Mrs. Waldo Potter, Lieut. and Mrs. Louie Beard, Lieut. Bernard Peyton, Lieut. Walter Robertson and the hosts.

Col. S. D. Sturgis entertained at dinner before the Wednesday hop for Miss Katherine Judge, Maj. H. O. Williams, Capt. and Mrs. Arthur Cassels, and Capt. Harry Williams.

Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Naylor gave a dinner on Wednesday, their guests being Lieut. and Mrs. Carroll Neal and Lieut. and Mrs. Harold Marr. The
